Let's Learn About Architect Julia Morgan

Julia Morgan played a huge role in shaping California's architecture and architecture and empowering women in a male-dominated field. She designed from the "inside out" caring about how people lived in her buildings--making them comfortable and practical practical inside.

Build a Structure Inspired by the Book!

Materials

Ask participants to save and bring cleaned, recycled items they have on-hand and add cardboard, cardstock, aluminum foil, pipe cleaners, popsicle sticks, glue sticks, tape, yarn, paper, etc. to add to build and increase creativity.

Steps

- 1 Break participants into small groups (3-6 depending on size of group).
- 2 Give each group 5 minutes to brainstorm what they will be build. Prompt them to consider shape, texture, materials and function. How would the featured architect or architectural concept apply to their design?
- 3 Allow groups access to the materials and start building either individually or as a group. (20-30 minutes).
- 4 Reflect on the build. Use suggestions or do your own!

Architecture by the Book® was inspired and developed by AIA Central Valley and is powered by CAF in collaboration with AIA California architecture firms and grant from the AIA College of Fellows.

Reflection Suggestions

- Ask participants to share their build with group. What do they love about it? What was challenging?
- Display the finished builds together. Reflect on the the differences in approaches and materials.
- Ask participants to share their inspiration for their their build. How did they apply it to their design?
- Select a build and sketch it on paper from a chosen chosen point of view (side,top, front). How did drawing drawing reveal its design?
