ABOUT

Founded by AIA California's Healthcare Facilities Forum Committee in memory of their colleague, the Robert J. Kain Healthcare Design Education Scholarship, known as The Kain Scholarship, strives to encourage and support architecture students interested in pursuing a career in the design and delivery of hospitals and healing environments.

ELIGIBILITY

- California Resident
- Proof of enrollment as a full-time student in an architecture program at a California College or University.
- Must be in an undergraduate or Masters program.
- NAAB accredited schools only.

THE PRIZE

The Kain Scholarship gives out approximately $6000 in scholarships annually to help offset costs of higher education in architecture.

Recipients are also invited to the Annual Healthcare Facilities Forum held in October.
