ABOUT

This program was created to celebrate Paul Welch Jr.'s experiences with the California Architects Board (CAB), as well as with AIA California, and his unwavering belief in the power of the architectural license. The scholarship recognizes the significant contributions of California interns at early stages in their careers and encourages them to complete the licensure process by covering all associated costs.

ELIGIBILITY

- California resident
- AIAS or Associate AIA Member in good standing
- NCARB and CAB record holder in good standing or IPAL student
- Applicants may have passed one or more divisions of the ARE, but cannot have passed all divisions.

THE PRIZE

Reimbursement of the cost of passing each division of the Architect Registration Examination (ARE) ($1,260 – $1,470) and the CA Supplemental Exam ($100). Proof of passing must be submitted for reimbursement. Funds can be applied to previously passed divisions.

Reimbursement of NCARB ($100) and CAB ($100) fees to establish records.
